University of Miami School of Law
Transfer Student Criteria for Law Review 2016-17

Transfer students who are accepted to Miami Law before the registration date for the summer writing competition should participate in the summer writing competition. (Please visit http://lawreview.law.miami.edu/writing-competition/ for the dates). Transfer students will participate in the same competition as all other J.D. students.

Transfer students who are accepted to Miami Law after the registration date for the summer writing competition can gain candidacy onto a law review by either:

1. Participating in the summer competition the summer after their 2L year at Miami Law, or by

If the Executive Board of that law review agrees to consider the transfer student for candidacy, the transfer student should submit a note or comment of publishable quality to the Senior Writing Editor or Editor-in-Chief on or before 5 p.m. on Monday, August 14, 2017. The note or comment should be a minimum of 15-pages and should include Bluebook citations in the form of a footnote.

The University of Miami Law Review does not accept any 2L transfer students. Transfer students may participate in the write-on competition as rising 3Ls if they meet the GPA requirement (top 33% of their class) after completing their first year at Miami Law.
