

Florida Supreme Court Internship Program for Distinguished Florida Law Students (Fall 2012)

The application packet for each prospective intern should include the following items:

- Resume
- Writing Sample
- Transcript(s)
- A brief statement by each applicant as to why he or she would like to be in the program
- A character and fitness clearance letter from the Florida Board of Bar Examiners
- A signed copy of the Statement of Weekly Hours (this is to clarify the number of weekly hours an intern plans to serve at the Court)
- A signed copy of the Consent to Criminal Background Investigation form for the Marshal's office
- A completed copy of the Criminal History Information Request form for the Marshal's office

Intern candidates must obtain and submit a character and fitness clearance letter from the Florida Board of Bar Examiners as a prerequisite for application and acceptance into the Court's intern program. A registrant Bar applicant or certified legal intern registrant character and fitness clearance letter from the Board will suffice.

The deadline to submit applications to the Director of Judicial Clerkships, Amy Perez (Career Development Office, Rm. A112), is Monday, April 23, 2012.

By submitting an application you are agreeing to participate in the program if selected.

The fall 2012 program will begin with orientation on Monday, August 27, 2012 and the term will end on Wednesday, November 21, 2012. Students are entitled to receive up to twelve (12) pass/fail course credits for participation in this program.

If you have any questions concerning the program or application materials, please contact Amy Perez at agperez@law.miami.edu or (305) 284-1924.
