I. MISSION

Founded in 1996, the Center for Ethics and Public Service (“CEPS”) is a law school-housed interdisciplinary ethics education, skills training, and community engagement program devoted to the values of ethical judgment, professional responsibility, and public service in law and society. Our goal is to educate law students to serve their communities as citizen lawyers.

II. LAW SCHOOL FACULTY AND STAFF

CEPS operates under the faculty supervision of Professor/Director Anthony Alfieri, Lecturer/Associate Director Jan L. Jacobowitz, and Lecturer/Practitioner-in-Residence Catherine Millas Kaiman, and the administrative oversight of Program Manager Cynthia McKenzie and Administrative Assistant Ebonie Carter.

III. LAW SCHOOL PROGRAMS

CEPS operates two graduate programs staffed by law student fellows\(^1\) and interns\(^2\): the Historic Black Church Program (“HBCP”) and the Professional Responsibility and Ethics Program (“PREP”).

HBCP provides rights education, interdisciplinary research, and public policy resources to low- and moderate-income communities in partnership with inner-city, faith-based and nonprofit groups through four projects: (1) Civil Rights & Poverty; (2) Environmental Justice; (3) Social Enterprise & Nonprofit; and (4) Oral History & Documentary Film.

PREP designs and delivers in-house continuing legal education ethics training in cooperation with bar associations, government agencies, nonprofit legal services organizations, and law school-affiliated alumni groups through three projects: (1) Continuing Legal Education Training; (2) Legal Ethics in Motion Blog; and (3) Government Ethics. PREP also hosts a Legal Ethics & Professionalism Colloquia series.

\(^1\) HBCP Fellowships: open to 2L and 3L CEPS-enrolled students in fall and spring semesters; 10-12 fieldwork and in-house supervision hours per week; stipend of $2,000 per semester or independent study credit. PREP Fellowships: open to 2L and 3L CEPS-enrolled students in fall and spring semesters; stipend of $2,000 per semester.

\(^2\) HBCP Internships: open to 2L and 3L CEPS-enrolled students in fall and spring semesters; 10-12 fieldwork and in-house supervision hours per week; 4 credits (seminar and practicum) per semester or 2 credits (seminar-only non-CEPS enrolled students); satisfies skills requirement. PREP Internships: open to 2L and 3L CEPS-enrolled students in fall and spring semesters; 3 credits per semester; satisfies skills and writing requirements.

1. Projects

(a) Civil Rights & Poverty Project

The Civil Rights & Poverty Project provides rights education, interdisciplinary research, and public policy resources to low- and moderate-income communities discriminated against by state and private actors in economic development, education, housing, and transportation. Fieldwork: Coconut Grove Village West, Overtown, South Miami, and Miami-Dade County.

(b) Environmental Justice Project

The Environmental Justice Project provides rights education, interdisciplinary research, and public policy resources to low- and moderate-income communities seeking fair treatment and meaningful involvement in the development, implementation, and enforcement of environmental laws, regulations,

5 The Project supplied research and policy support in drafting a model community benefits agreement ordinance for the Miami-Dade County Board of County Commissioners. See Community Benefits Agreement for the Distribution of County Funds (June 2015).

6 The Project provided rights education, research, and policy support to nonprofit organizations and the plaintiff’s pro bono team in Coconut Grove Village West and the Coral Gables MacFarlane Homestead Subdivision and the Golden Gates District for the purposes of conducting investigations and filing complaints on municipal trolley facility siting and service with the U.S. Department of Transportation Federal Transit Administration Office of Civil Rights under Title VI of the Civil Rights Act of 1964 against the City of Miami, the City of Coral Gables, and Miami-Dade County. See Clarice C. Cooper, FTA No. 2014-0043 (June 17, 2014) (instructing the City of Miami to improve its Title VI Program procedures and protections for future service and fare changes affecting the trolley system); Clarice C. Cooper, FTA No. 2013-0131 (Oct. 28, 2013) (finding violations of Title VI by the City of Miami, the City of Coral Gables, and Miami-Dade County in failing to conduct equity and disparate impact analysis in siting of trolley maintenance facility). Madan, Gables Trolleys to Roll Out in MacFarlane Historic District, MIAMI HERALD, July 24, 2015; Jenny Staletovich, Feds: Local Governments Violated the Civil Rights Act in Coral Gables Trolley Case, MIAMI HERALD, Nov. 12, 2013.
and policies, including incinerator contamination and industrial pollution. Fieldwork: Coconut Grove Village West, the City of Miami, and Miami-Dade County.

(c) Social Enterprise & Nonprofit Project

The Social Enterprise & Nonprofit Project provides education and training in the start-up and governance of nonprofit organizations and for-profit benefit and social purpose corporations. Fieldwork: Coconut Grove Village West (e.g., Coconut Grove Ministerial Alliance, Inc., Greater St. Paul AME CDC) and Little Haiti (i.e., Little Haiti FC Soccer Club).

(d) Oral History & Documentary Film Project

The Oral History & Documentary Film Project compiles oral history archives and produces film documentaries to preserve the cultural and social history of low-income communities of color in South Florida through a partnership with Ransom Everglades High School. Since 2010, the project has produced five films documenting the history of Coconut Grove Village West, public school segregation in Miami-Dade County, and environmental injustice in the City of Miami.

B. Professional Responsibility and Ethics Program (Jacobowitz)

1. Projects

7 The Project provides environmental rights education, research, and policy support to the Coconut Grove Ministerial Alliance, Inc., the Old Smokey Steering Committee, the Friends of Merrie Christmas Park, and other nonprofit organizations and homeowner-and-tenant associations in Coconut Grove Village West, the City of Miami, and Miami-Dade County for the purposes of studying the harmful or potentially harmful effects of environmental exposure to hazardous waste from the former City of Miami Incinerator No. 2 (i.e., Old Smokey) and petitioning the U.S. Department of Health & Human Services Agency for Toxic Substances and Disease Registry for a public health assessment of such harmful or potentially harmful effects. See Old Smokey Steering Committee, ATSDR Supplemental Petition for Public Health Assessment and Disease Registry (Nov. 20, 2014); Old Smokey Steering Committee, ATSDR Petition for Public Health Assessment and Disease Registry (May 2, 2014). See also Nick Madigan, In the Shadow of ’Old Smokey,’ a Toxic Legacy, N.Y. TIMES, Sept. 22, 2013.

8 The Project provided environmental rights education, research, and policy support to the Old Smokey Steering Committee and its pro bono team in challenging the City of Miami Commission’s July 2014 designation of eight Old Smokey waste-contaminated City of Miami parks as brownfield sites. See CEPS/Environmental Justice Project, Contamination and Brownfield History (2014); City of Miami Resolution PH.2 14-01018 Dep’t of Capital Improvement Programs/Transportation Has Been Withdrawn (Oct. 23, 2014) (withdrawing designation of brownfield property sites within the City of Miami); David Villano, City Quietly Labels Toxic Parks “Brownfield Sites,” Limiting Neighborhood Input In Cleanup, MIAMI NEW TIMES, Oct. 3, 2014.

(a) Continuing Legal Education Training
The Continuing Legal Education Training Project designs and delivers in-house continuing legal education ethics training to bar associations, government agencies, nonprofit legal services organizations, and law school-affiliated alumni groups.\textsuperscript{12} See Appendix A.

(b) Legal Ethics in Motion Blog
The Legal Ethics in Motion Blog Project provides law student commentary on ethical issues affecting the local, national, and international legal community in the digital age, including social media, technology, and other emerging fields.

(c) Government Ethics
The Government Ethics Project drafts model statutes and resource guides for citizens, government employees, and government lawyers in partnership with the Miami-Dade Commission on Ethics and Public Trust and other government agencies and civic organizations.

2. Legal Ethics & Professionalism Colloquia
PREP students and faculty present legal ethics and professionalism colloquia on the legal services industry (e.g., for-profit, nonprofit, government, and in-house) and related ancillary industries (e.g., accounting, banking, and insurance) in collaboration with leading local, state, national, and international members of the academic, bar, and bench communities.

IV. Law School Curriculum

Law School faculty teach three CEPS-sponsored courses open to J.D. and Joint Degree students: (1) Public Interest Law, Ethics, & Leadership; (2) Social Enterprise; and (3) Professional Responsibility and Ethics Program.\textsuperscript{13}

A. Public Interest Law, Ethics, and Leadership (Alfieri & Kaiman/Fall)
Public Interest Law, Ethics, and Leadership studies the theory and practice of public interest law, ethics, and leadership for nonprofit and for-profit law firms, public policy and faith-based service organizations, and local, national, and international social justice movements.

B. Social Enterprise (Alfieri & Kaiman/Spr.)
Social Enterprise examines the lawyer’s transactional role as counsel to, and collaborator with, social entrepreneurs in starting, advising, financing, and \textsuperscript{12} PREP also participates in the Anti-Defamation League’s summer associate research program.

\textsuperscript{13} Faculty also teach outside CEPS in the first-year and upper-level law school curriculum: Alfieri (e.g., Civil Procedure I and Civil Procedure II), Jacobowitz (e.g., Mindful Ethics and Social Media & the Law).
operating nonprofit organizations and for-profit social enterprises (e.g., benefit and social purpose corporations) in low- and moderate-income communities.

C. Professional Responsibility and Ethics Program (Jacobowitz/Fall & Spr.)

Professional Responsibility and Ethics instructs students in researching, drafting, and presenting continuing legal education ethics trainings to bar associations, government agencies, nonprofit legal services organizations, and law school-affiliated alumni groups throughout the South Florida bar, bench, and civic community.

V. UNDERGRADUATE OUTREACH PROGRAMS

CEPS operates two undergraduate outreach and recruitment programs staffed by faculty and law student fellows and interns: (1) the UM Environmental Justice, Law, & Science Consortium; and (2) the Dartmouth College Ethics Institute Internship Program.

A. UM Environmental Justice, Law, & Science Consortium (Summer)

The UM Environmental Justice, Law, & Science Consortium is a university-wide undergraduate student internship program supported by CEPS and Brown University to train the next generation of environmental lawyers, scientists, and policy makers. Students conduct interdisciplinary research, draft policy papers, and collaborate with community groups, nonprofit organizations, and government agencies in field studies. Partners include the Abess Center for Ecosystem Science and Policy, Everglades Law Center, Miami Waterkeeper, Urban Environment League, UM School of Architecture, and UM Rosenstiel School of Marine and Atmospheric Science (Department of Marine Ecosystems and Society).

B. Dartmouth College Ethics Institute Internship Program (Winter)

The Dartmouth College Ethics Institute Internship Program is an undergraduate student internship program supported by the Dartmouth College Ethics Institute to educate students in applied ethics and the law. During their week-long residency at CEPS, Dartmouth students attend academic seminars, conduct research, and participate in colloquia with local community groups, nonprofit organizations, and government agencies.

VI. INTERNAL AWARDS

CEPS confers three annual leadership awards: the William M. Hoeveler Award, the Lawyers in Leadership Award, and the Friends of the Center Award. The William M. Hoeveler Award honors extraordinary members of the bar and bench distinguished by their long-standing dedication to ethics and public service. The Lawyers in Leadership Award honors outstanding members of the bar and bench distinguished by their dedication to ethics and civic leadership. The Friends of the Center Award honors civic-minded members of the South Florida community distinguished by their devotion to the Center for Ethics & Public Service. See Appendix B.

VII. EXTERNAL AWARDS

CEPS has won numerous local, state, and national awards, including two American Bar Association awards, three Association of American Law School ("AALS") awards, and Florida Bar and Florida Supreme Court awards. See Appendix C.

VIII. LAW SCHOOL SPACE

CEPS occupies three offices and a student workroom on the second and third floors of the law school library.

IX. ADVISORY BOARD

The CEPS Board historically served in an advisory and a support role. See Appendix D. In its third decade, the Board will expand to take on a leadership role in fund-raising and in creating a pro bono referral network of "cooperating attorneys" (i.e., local lawyers and law firms)\textsuperscript{14} to assist unrepresented communities in both litigation and transactional matters.

X. COMMUNITY IMPACT

Since 1996, CEPS has served over 45,000 members of the Florida community, including university undergraduate and graduate students, government agencies, high schools and middle schools, homeowners and tenants, lawyers and judges, nonprofit organizations and neighborhood associations, and civic leaders through education, training, research, and policy assistance.

CEPS faculty, fellows, and interns have been widely cited in law journals (i.e., 815) and in the media (i.e., 398). They also have posted a dozen Community-based Research Working Papers (i.e., citizen civic engagement tool kits) on the CEPS website and 217 weblog informational entries on the Legal Ethics in Motion Blog which has attracted more than 27,000 views since its inception in 2012.

Additionally, CEPS faculty, fellows, and interns publish an annual newsletter with a circulation of over 1,000.

\textsuperscript{14} The "cooperating attorney network" model is widely used by national legal services organizations including the American Civil Liberties Union, Lambda Legal, NAACP Legal Defense and Educational Fund, Inc., and Lawyers Committee for Civil Rights Under Law.
