

Faculty Supervised Writing Approval Form

To earn two credits and satisfy a J.D. graduation writing requirement, a law review article or independent study paper must be supervised and graded by a member of the full-time faculty. These papers are typically 30-40 pages and involve multiple drafts, incorporating faculty feedback into subsequent draft(s). See ABA Standard 303(a)(2) and Interpretation 303-2.

This form must be fully executed before a student will be enrolled in supervised writing.

Paper Topic: _____

Law Review (if so, which law review): _____

Individual Research

The undersigned student and faculty member have agreed that the student will undertake an independent writing project under the faculty member's supervision. Three-credit independent writing projects must be submitted for Decanal approval through the Registrar's Office.

*The professor will deliver to the Registrar the Supervised Writing Completion Form, the final version of the student's project and the grade to be recorded.
