Emerging Issues in Investor-State Arbitration

Professor Carolyn Lamm

Carolyn Lamm is a partner and litigator in White & Case's Washington D.C. Office and is a prominent practitioner in international arbitration and dispute resolution, trade matters and cross-border commercial federal court litigation. Professor Lamm has been recognized repeatedly for her professional expertise in international dispute resolution and leadership in the profession. She is a member of the American Arbitration Association Executive Committee and Board and has extensive experience as an arbitrator and litigator. Last year, The National Law Journal named her one of its "Most Influential Lawyers," and Legal Times named her among its "Visionaries" in 2010 for her role as American Bar Association president. She is an alumna of the University of Miami School of Law and was a member of the Inter-American Law Review. At Miami Law she teaches Investment Arbitration in the International Arbitration program.
