

THE CUBAN AMERICAN BAR ASSOCIATION

UNIVERSITY OF MIAMI SCHOOL OF LAW

STUDENT CHAPTER MISSION STATEMENT

The mission of the Cuban American Bar Association (CABA), University of Miami School of Law Student Chapter (hereinafter “University of Miami School of Law CABA”), is to promote membership with the Cuban American Bar Association among current students at University of Miami School of Law. The University of Miami School of Law CABA’s members include students of Cuban, Cuban-American descent, as well as those who are not of Cuban descent, but are interested in issues affecting the Cuban community. The University of Miami School of Law CABA will strive to advance the relationships between student members and the professional members of the Cuban American Bar Association by promoting networking events and functions hosted by the Cuban American Bar Association while encouraging on-campus appearances of the professionals that compose its body.

University of Miami School of Law CABA's mission as a student chapter of CABA is to promote the equality of our members; serve the public interest by increasing awareness of the study of jurisprudence; foster respect for the law; promote and preserve high standards of integrity, honor, and professional courtesy among our peers; build close relationships among our members; support the Cuban-American indigent community; and increase diversity in the judiciary and legal community.

GENERAL OBJECTIVES

- To network with professionals in the Cuban American Bar Association through events, functions and appearances by its professionals.
- To forge relationships with members of the Cuban American Bar Association in all areas of law.
- To keep all chapter members and professional members in the Cuban American Bar Association informed of events, functions and opportunities, and to encourage their involvement in its activities, and to provide members opportunities to assume leadership roles.
- To promote professional and social interaction among student members and professional members of the Cuban American Bar Association.
